Ruth:

My current job situation continues to be unworkable. Point administrative responsibilities are a full-time job (much more than full-time, when continued MWEC tasks are added).

As we talked before and as I said at the last board meeting, in order for Point to flourish, we need a person assigned to the Point administrator job. If desired by you and the board, I would be happy to fulfill this position. Those responsibilities must be fulfilled, but they are too great for me to handle and take on the Associate Publisher tasks.

Thanks for your help in resolving this, ASAP.
